Decorator's Show Attracts Ralph, Dorothy Dietz

PALM DESERT - Dorothy and Ralph Diesert — Dorothy and Ralph Diesert. Who have spent the summer getting settled in their new shop, spent last weekend in Beverly Hills, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dietz, parents of Ralph, and viewed the Decorator's Show at the Pan-Pacific auditorium.

The Dietz' stated that they saw many new and revolutionary ideas in interior decor at the show, as well as interesting lines of Danish furniture and an outstanding collection of antiques.

Louis Braille, a Frenchman who was blind himself and who died in 1852 at the age of 43, developed the braille system of raised dots for the blind.

MILWAUKEE. OPD — A restaurant manager told police Wednesday the only thing missing from his piace after an attempted robbery was a little dirt.

It seems the alleged burglar, Robert Wentzner, scrubbed the restaurant floor in an attempt to pass himself off to police as a clean-up man.

McCOY SAID THERE had been an "appreciable drop" during the past season in sand damage. He said this was because constructions and research department, together with the district staff, has solved some very difficult problems in the past and tion scars of a few years ago were becoming "stablized" along the expressway section between Garnet and Thousand Palms. McCoy reported a reduction in sand damage to highway signs, guide posts and guard rails.
